Proficiency in a World Language adds a competitive advantage in all career fields. Employees who possess the ability to communicate effectively with global partners are considered vital to all businesses currently doing business abroad or who wish to expand internationally. Interpreters and translators convert information from one language to another. Interpreters work in spoken or sign language, while translators work in written language. Interpreters work in settings such as schools, hospitals, courtrooms, and conference centers. Please visit gacollege411.com for more information about education, career planning and financial aid.
