

For Immediate Release

CCSD Invites Local Businesses to Informational Session about 2023 Disparity Study

Athens, Georgia — The Clarke County School District has engaged Griffin & Strong, P.C to conduct a disparity study to determine the availability of minority and women business enterprises (MBEs/WBEs) in the local marketplace.

Griffin & Strong, P.C. will host a virtual informational meeting from 5-6:30 p.m. Wednesday, July 20. The session will be an opportunity for the Athens-Clarke County business community to ask questions, learn about the study, and discuss how to participate.

Advanced registration is free and recommended, but not required for participation. Click here to register.

For questions or concerns, please email Griffin & Strong at clarkecountyschoolstudy@gspclaw.com. Please note all comments may be recorded and potentially used in the study. For more information, contact Trinity Williams, Deputy Project Manager for Griffin & Strong, at 678-584-9777.

Griffin & Strong, P.C. is a law and public policy consulting firm based in Atlanta, Georgia. Since 1992, the firm has represented individual clients, small businesses, corporations, and government entities in public policy consulting, legislation, contract compliance, supplier diversity consulting, and disparity research.

###

Media Contact

Scott Thompson

Clarke County School District Communications Specialist | thompsons3@clarke.k12.ga.us