Overview of Title I

The Title I Program...

- is the largest federal assistance program for schools.
  - provides support to students who are most at risk of not meeting the state's academic standards.
  - bases funds on the number of students receiving free or reduced price lunch.
  - supports parents by offering workshops and training opportunities to build their capacity in supporting their children's education.

Title I School-wide

- While an emphasis is placed on students at risk of not meeting academic standards, all students at the school benefit from Title I funds.
- Materials, equipment, professional development, extended learning time, and teachers that are funded through Title I benefit all students and parents.

All schools in CCSD for the 2023-2024 school year are School-wide Programs.

Parent Involvement

District Family Engagement Plan

- The CCSD Family Engagement Plan describes how the district will partner with parents and community members and encourage their participation in the design, implementation, and evaluation of its Title I Program.
- The school plan is sent home to all parents and posted on the schools website. It is also available on CCSD website: clarke.k12.ga.us

Parent Involvement

Burney-Harris-Lyons values the contributions and involvement of parents to establish a partnership for the common goal of improving student achievement. Our school plan describes the different ways that Burney-Harris-Lyons will support parent engagement, and how parents can help plan and participate in activities and events to promote student learning at school and at home.

Parent Involvement

What is a School-Home Compact?

- an agreement developed with parent input that outlines how the parents, the entire school staff, and the students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement
  - describes how the school and parents will build and develop a partnership to help children achieve at the State's high standards.
  - What opportunities does the school provide for parent involvement?

Highly Qualified Status of Teachers and Paraprofessionals

- Right-to-Know
Parents have the right to request information about the degree and certification of their child's teacher(s) and paraprofessional(s).
- Notification of teachers/paraprofessionals who are not highly qualified
- In addition, parents will be notified by the school through the mail when their child has been taught for four consecutive weeks by a teacher who is not highly qualified.

20-Day Notice

- In Georgia, in accordance with the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) of 2015, all LEA schools are required to provide timely notice to parents when students have been assigned or taught for 4 or more consecutive weeks by a teacher who does not meet applicable state certification or licensure requirements (including requirements aligned to approved charter and strategic waiver applications)
