Seeking cooperating teachers to help teacher candidates gain practical experience

The University of Georgia could not prepare quality educators without the assistance of cooperating teachers. A cooperating teacher is a certified teacher of record working within a school system who provides on-site supervision to teacher candidates in the classroom. The University of Georgia is seeking interested teachers to guide our candidates in academic year 2020-2021.

Application deadline
Monday, Feb. 17, 2020
